IGMC MISSION

The Inspector General of the Marine Corps promotes Marine Corps combat readiness, integrity, efficiency, effectiveness, and credibility through impartial and independent inspections, assessments, inquiries, and investigations.

IGMC VISION

As a team, we are committed to serving our Nation and Corps by assisting the Secretary of the Navy and the Commandant of the Marine Corps in their statutory responsibilities of providing Marine forces trained, ready to fight, and positioned to win our Nation's battles. As such, we will carry out our mission while ensuring the highest standards of ethical leadership, integrity and Quality of Life for our Marines, Sailors, civilian Marines, and their families. We will focus on the future to assess its impact upon our Corps' combat readiness and seek continuous improvement across the spectrum of Department of the Navy and Marine Corps requirements.

IGMC

IGMC Campaign Plan:

The Inspector General Campaign Plan has been developed to articulate a comprehensive vision and strategic direction for the IGMC. Its tenets provide the strategic and operational guidance by which we will identify opportunities to improve efficiency and effectiveness and direct our combined energies to assist the Marine Corps in achieving it's mission. This campaign plan charts a course of the Inspector community through 2008 and demonstrate our commitment to uphold the highest standards of excellence, integrity, and credibility in all our endeavors, and by doing so advance combat readiness throughout the Marine Corps.

Guiding Principles of the Campaign Plan

- Focus primary efforts on enhancing combat readiness at every level:
- Exercise fairness, impartiality, and timeliness in accomplishing our mission:
- Provide candid, objective, and uninhibited analysis and advice:
- Remain flexible to the needs and requirements of the CMC and his Commanders;
- Recognize individual initiative and contributions;
- Respect individual dignity;
- Promote trust, integrity, and respect; and,
- Seek continuous improvement in all areas.

IGMC

3 Goals of the Campaign Plan

Enhance the Inspector Community's ability to Support Commanders to Improve Combat Readiness;

Increase the IGMC Abilities to Ensure, Promote, Enhance our Corps Ethos;

Enhance and Develop IGMC Policy, Processes, and Procedures to Support Future Capabilities of the Marine Corps

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

The directive of the Inspections Division is to coordinate, conduct, and evaluate inspections of Active forces and supporting establishment commands, units, and activities, including operational forces assigned to the unified commands. Additionally, the Inspections Division Director will serve as principal advisor to the Inspector General of the Marine Corps on all inspection matters and hear request mast during inspections IAW MCO 1700.23E.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

DIRECTOR'S INTENT

Inspections will reinforce the importance of combat readiness, evaluate the critical areas essential for mission performance, and serve as a tool for commanders to assess their units.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

Commanding General's Inspection Program (CGIP)

Inspect, biennially, the CGIP of the Major Subordinate Commands.

Through inspections, ensure that each MSC is complying with Commandant of the Marine Corps procedures and is accomplishing its assigned mission, tasks, and functions.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

Unit Inspection Program (UIP)

- Inspect, biennially, within the UIP, those independent units and activities that are not in the operational or administrative chain of command of a major subordinate commander (MSC).

- Through inspections, ensure that each unit is complying with Commandant of the Marine Corps procedures and is accomplishing its assigned mission, tasks, and functions.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

Specific Tasks

- Maintain an oversight and follow-up program to correct findings reported in the CGIP an UIP inspection reports.

- Review items of special interest to the CMC.

- Recognize individuals and units for excellence demonstrated during inspections.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

Inspection Methodology

Focus on "Functional Area Compliance" IOT reach the end state of……

"Operational Readiness of Units and Individual Marines."

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

CONCEPT-BIENNIAL INSPECTIONS

Conduct short-notice and no-notice inspections in order to minimize wasted preparation time and provide commanders with an accurate assessment of day-to-day readiness.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

CONCEPT-BIENNIAL INSPECTIONS

IGMC Inspections will:

- Respect and uphold the commander's authority and foster a climate of trust and confidence
- Focus on unit mission
- Be positive and provide productive learning experiences for those personnel inspected.
- Attempt to identify root causes of problems, particularly those which are beyond the ability of the commander to solve.
- Include follow-up and resolution of problems that are beyond the ability of the inspected command/unit to solve.

Grading & Follow-up Grades assigned will be either:

MISSION CAPABLE

NON-MISSION CAPABLE

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

MISSION CAPABLE: The command or unit possesses the requisite skills, equipment, personnel and understanding to accomplish its assigned mission, tasks, and functions; and it uses these skills, equipment, personnel, and understanding to accomplish its Mission, Tasks, and Functions.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

NON-MISSION CAPABLE: The command or unit does not possess the requisite skills, equipment, personnel, and understanding to accomplish its assigned mission, tasks, and functions; or does not use these skills, equipment, personnel, and understanding to accomplish its assigned Missions, Tasks, and Functions.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

Problems noted during the inspection will be categorized as follows:

Discrepancy

Finding

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

Discrepancy:

An error or failure to comply with guidance, direction, or action as required in appropriate and applicable directives.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

Finding:

a Significant Problem within the command that:

- Detracts from the command's readiness.
- Involves or could lead to waste, fraud, or abuse.
- Involves issues of health, morale, or welfare of the unit's Marines or Sailors.
- Significantly deviates from higher headquarters' policies and procedures.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

Inspection Critique:

FEEDBACK is an important element of the inspection process. Each command or unit will be asked to complete a survey questionnaire.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

REPORTING

An inspection report, to include a copy of the completed Automated Inspection Reports System (AIRS) inspection checklists, will be provided to the commander immediately following the inspection.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

The inspection report is intended to provide the commander with sufficient information necessary to initiate required actions within the command or unit to correct deficiencies noted, refine existing programs, and aid in the overall accomplishment of the command's or unit's mission. The report will not contain findings or discrepancies that were not contained in the completed checklists of the initial report or addressed during the inspection debrief.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

Inspection reporting and follow-up will be limited to the significant items affecting command or unit performance.

A written response will be required from the command or unit for "non-mission capable" functional areas and findings issued.

Written responses are not required for discrepancies.

INSPECTIONS DIVISION

Follow-up inspections will be conducted for commands or units found to be

"non-mission capable"

ASSISTANCE & INVESTIGATIONS

ASSISTANCE & INVESTIGATIONS

Assistance and Investigations (A&I) Division provides support in the areas of non-criminal investigations to the IGMC. The A&I receives reports/allegations of misconduct, impropriety, fraud, waste, mismanagement, inefficiency, or violation of law, and conducts investigations/inquiries as appropriate. A&I is the focal point and official Marine Corps representative to whom, as an alternative to the normal chain of command channels, military and civilian personnel may request assistance or make complaints without fear of reprisal.
